On October 31, 2007, this Commission issued Order No. 2007-747 denying Sandi Perry (Ms. Perry) any relief in the above-captioned complaint which she filed against BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. d/b/a AT&T South Carolina (AT&T). We further found that because Ms. Perry's dispute of certain charges was found to be unwarranted and unsupported, she was obligated to pay her bill in full. On or about November 15, 2007, Ms. Perry filed a document styled "Petitioner's Protest and Third Petition for Rehearing," in which she seeks to have the Commission rehear her case and reconsider the rulings contained within Order No. 2007-747. Prior to the issuance of Order No. 2007-747, Ms. Perry had filed two other petitions for rehearing, but we properly deferred any consideration of rehearing until after the final order had been issued. We did, however, refer to both of the previous petitions for rehearing in Order No. 2007-747.

In an effort to treat Ms. Perry, a pro se litigant, as favorably as possible, we have now fully reviewed all three of Ms. Perry's petitions seeking rehearing. None of these documents presents any new evidence or any information which might lead us to reach a different result than was articulated in Order No. 2007-747. All of the claims made by Ms. Perry, including the contract-based claims which she now implies were not specifically ruled upon, have been addressed in full in the prior order and rejected. Because Ms. Perry has presented no matter which would warrant rehearing of this case or reconsideration of our rulings in Order No. 2007-747, the Commission denies Ms. Perry's petition in its entirety.
